By the Georgia Meſſenger we are inform'd, that coming to the Uchee Town he heard that 2 of the Uchee Women were killed by the Tamaſees, and that Mr. Goodale was gone to Savannah-Town, to give an Account thereof, that the Uchees being at Allatamaha might cut off the Tamaſees in their March back to Auguſtine. The latter left behind the uſual Tokens of War, viz. a War-ſtick with 20 Notches

Notches (ſuppoſed ſo many People) with the reſemblance of a Perſon cut thereon, a Swan-skin, an old Jacket and a Spaniſh Tom-hawk.

By Capt. Yeadley we hear, that Mr Oglethorpe was gone to Savannah, and is now hourly expected here.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

LONDON, March 6.

It is now ſaid, with ſome Certainty, that his Majeſty will viſit his German Dominions this Summer

The Advices from Conſtantinople by the way of Vienna, contradict thoſe hinted mther from Petersburg, and aſſure, that the Peace treating between the Turks and Perſians has met with ſome new Difficulties, and is by no means in the forwardneſs reported 'Tis certain the Ottoman Empire ſeems on the brink of a Revolution, the Janiſaries having taken part with the People, wait the firſt favourable Opportunity of depoſing the Grand Signior, who according to our Letters, has cauſed his Rival, Sultan Ibrahim, Son of the late Grand Signior, to be murdered in the Seven Towers, where he had been a Priſonor ſince the Depoſition of his Father in the Year 1730

They write from Vienna, that the Emperor has conferred upon General Wallis, the Duke of Aremberg, and the Counts Harrois and Seckendorff, the Dignity of Velt-Marſhal of his Armies: That Prince Charles of Lorrain is preparing to ſet out on his Travels to viſit the principal Courts of Germany, and afterwards England, Flanders and Holland, and that he will be declared Vicroy of Hungary upon his Return The Univerſity of the City of Vienna having waited on the Duke and Dutcheſs of Lorrain to congratulate their Marriage, and making their Compliments in Latin, the Archdutcheſs anſwered them in the ſame Language, which ſhe ſpoke with a Purity that ſurprized that learned Body Mr. du Theil, the French Miniſter at the Imperial Court, has lately made ſome Propoſals towards ſatisfying the Pretenſions of the Elector of Bavaria, and it ſeems aſſured, that Pains are taking in every Court of Europe to remove all Complaints, ſo that the enſuing Peace may be univerſally ſatisfactory, and founded on a laſting Baſis. 'Tis talk'd that Prince Eugene will reſign the Military Employs he holds under his Imperial Majeſty, and that the brave Count Konigſegg is like to ſucceed him.

March 9. An extraordinary Wager happened laſt Wedneſday at Mr Boxwell's in Friday-ſtreet, between a Church Warden of a certain Pariſh, and an Overſeer: The Church-Warden laid, that the Overſeer did not ſign the Poors Rate with his own Hand, but that his Son did it; when, after a Hearing, it was given againſt the Church Warden, it being proved, that the Overſeer's Daughter ſigned it. From this Caſe 'tis hoped Care will be taken for the future, that no Perſon ſhall be Overſeer who does not write his Name, and to prevent bringing a Cuſtom for Girls to ſign the Poor's Rate.

The latter End of next Week four of his Majeſty's Yachts, and a Convoy of four Men of War will ſail for Oſtend, in order to receive her Highneſs the Princeſs Saxe Gotha, and bring her and her Retinue to England

The Merchants concerned in the Weſt India Trade have appointed a Meeting on Wedneſday next, at the three Tuns in Grace Church-ſtreet, to conſider of the State of that Trade at preſent; and to make proper Application for the Advancement of it.

We hear that the Duty on Geneva and other Spirituous Liquors will be 20 s a Gallon. And

That every Retailer of the ſaid Liquors will be obliged to pay Annually 50 l. for a Licence

Laſt Saturday one of the Pages of the Bed Chamber to his Majeſty, being diſordered in his Senſes, ſhot himſelf through the Head with a Piſtol at his Houſe at Brumpton, and died immediately.

Laſt Friday a Cauſe was tried before the Lord Chief Juſtice Reeves, in which one Brown, a Sailor on board the Middleſex, an India Man, was Plaintiff, and Mr. George Martin, Son of Matthew Martin, Eſq; Member of Parliament for Colcheſter, and a Director of the India Company, ſecond Mate of the ſame Ship, Defendant It appeared upon the Trial, that Brown had been guilty of a Neglect of Duty, for which Martin ſtruck at him with a Rattan or ſmall Cane; but Brown turning round, was ſo unfortunate as to receive the Blow on his Eye, which occaſion'd his loſing the Sight of it. Several Witneſſes ſwore that Mr. Martin behaved to the Sailors in a courteous, civil manner; and 'twas even owned by Brown, that he did not think Mr. Martin intended him any Miſchief The Jury found a Verdict for the Plaintiff with 200 l. Damages.

Letters from Paris mention the Death of two Perſons at a very extraordinary Age, the firſt Mancombe, who died at Sedan, the 1ſt of March, aged 109 Years; he was the Brother of the Widow Crede, who died in November laſt, at the Age of 111 Years. The other Durand Eſtival a Labourer, who died at Carbonieres in Quercy in the 117 Year of his Age

On Friday laſt, after the Queen's Levee was over, the Right Hon. Sir Robert Walpole delivered to the Lord Delawar a Commiſſion under the Great Seal of Great Britain, appointing him to negociate, conclude, and ſign a Treaty of Marriage between his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and Princeſs Auguſta of Saxe Gotha, as likewiſe his Majeſty's Letters of Credence to the Duke her Brother, and his Lordſhip's proper Inſtructions; after which his Lordſhip, together with the Lords of the Bed-Chamber, and other Great Officers belonging to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, were magnificently entertained at Dinner by his Excellency the Envoy de Thoms, at his Houſe in Golden-Square

March 11. The Grand Duke of Tuſcany has acceeded to the Preliminaries, and conſented to accept the Duke of Lorrain for his Succeſſor. The Spaniards were to begin to evacuate that Dutchy on the 12th, N S and the 6000 Imperialiſts to enter immediately after, to take Poſſeſſion of the fortified Places

'Tis aſſured from Madrid, that the Differences between their Catholick and Portugueze Majeſties are as good as made up by the Mediation of Great Britain and Holland, and that the Reconciliation will be declar'd at the ſame Time that the Peace between Spain and the Emperor is publiſhed. No Ships have been taken, nor Hoſtilities of of any kind committed, as was falſly reported in ſome of the Papers

The Report of a Peace concluded between the Turks and Perſians was groundleſs: A Rupture between the former and the Czarina ſeems inevitable. The Grand Seignor having diſcovered the Perſons concerned in the late Conſpiracy, has cauſed ſome to be eaten by Dogs, others buried alive, and a third Number thrown naked into unſlack'd Lime, to deter the People from farther Attempts.

We are told from Thorn, by the Way of Paris, that the Marquis de Monti was to ſet out from thence the 21ſt of laſt Month, in order to return to France. The French Militia have begun their March Home from the Rhine and Moſelle, according to the Orders they have received from their Court

Yeſterday in the Afternoon the Right Hon John Lord Delawar, Treaſurer of the Houſhold to his Majeſty, one of his Privy-Council, and Knight of the moſt Hon. Order of the Bath, ſet out in order to embark for Holland. His Lordſhip is attended by the Rev. Dr Savage as his Chaplain, by a Maitre d'Hotel, a Secretary, two Valets de Chambre and eight Footmen in ſplendid Liveries.

By Letters from Lanerk in Scotland, we have an Account of a very uncommon Chain of Events which happen'd there t'other Week, viz Elizabeth Fairy was proclaimed (in order to Marriage) on Sunday, was accordly married on Monday, bore a Child on Tueſday, her Husband went and ſtole a Horſe on Wedneſday, for which he was baniſhed on Thurſday, the Heir of this Marriage died on Friday, and was decently interred on Saturday: all in one Week.
